Veeva SiteVault

Essential SiteVault Tips

Hi,

Ready to enhance your use of SiteVault? Welcome to our SiteVault newsletter delivering essential insights on making the most out of your eISF! We will periodically spotlight reminders and common issues reported by users like you, along with key features and resources.

As remote monitoring becomes a standard industry practice, we want to highlight why you should monitor your studies in SiteVault. Here are a few considerations of how SiteVault can make monitoring visits for your site easier and faster:

Monitoring in SiteVault

Why should you monitor your studies in SiteVault?

 One Place to Manage Studies You can use SiteVault to monitor across all of your studies, regardless of the sponsor.	 Minimize Training for Monitors Sponsors are using multiple Veeva applications and are monitoring other sites via SiteVault. You don't have to train them, they already know it!	 Quick Monitoring Visit Prep SiteVault automatically compiles documents that are ready for review and tracks monitoring history to save hours spent preparing for your monitoring visit.
